KILLED AT MUNCIE, IND.

Word has just been received here by friends announcing the death at Muncie, Ind., of Mr. James Cox, formerly of this city. Mr. Cox was a railway employee and was killed by being run over by a train. Several years ago he was a flagman on the local branch of the L. & N. railroad.

Miss Florence Rogers will return today from a visit to relatives and friends at Indianapolis, Ind.

NEW GARAGE TO OPEN SATURDAY

(Vanceburg Sun)
Mr. Bartlett of Maysville, was here Monday and contracted for the work on his new garage in the Hays wagon shop building on Second street. He expects to open Saturday with a line of Overland cars in charge of Fred Hickel.

Miss Lucy Lee Parker and Mrs. Goldsby Farrar of Orangeburg, were shopping here Wednesday.

DRUNKEN FATHER

Placed Under Arrest Wednesday Afternoon—Three-Year-Old Son Taken To City Mission.

Residents and bystanders near the corner of Front and Market streets were forced to call upon the police Wednesday afternoon. Two men, one with small boy in charge, were observed down on the grade near the wharfboat in a very drunken condition. The man who had the boy was falling and rolling around on the bark and it was feared that both would fall into the river and be drowned.

Officer Dudley Elzer soon arrived and placed the men under arrest and turned the boy over to Mrs. Peddlard at the City Mission.

The father was so drunk that he could not give his name nor where he was from; the other man gave his name as Jack O'Connell.

The boy at the Mission seemed to be a very intelligent little chap and talked freely, but he could not talk plainly enough for one to understand everything he said. He said that his name was William Albert, that he was 3 years old and that he lived on a boat with his father. What he tried to tell concerning his mother and other matters could not all be understood.

At the jail Thursday morning the man gave his name as Jack Eddington and said that he came off of the Tahoma here Wednesday, but would give no further particulars of himself or the boy.

The whole story will be sifted out in the Police Court.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ENTERAINED WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

CRASH OF FORTUNES

Wednesday night the Sunday school class of Mrs. J. C. Burwell of the First M. E. church, South, was delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burwell on East Second street, by Mrs. Fannie Gelsel and Misses Ruth Hall and Bessie Wells. The pretty home was tastefully decorated with Easterilles and a most pleasant evening was spent by the large number present, who were Misses Dickmann, Dorothy Hockaday, Nellie Tristler, Lucy Gordon Qualtrance, Lizzie D. Qualtrance, Angie Watson, Jenny N. Watson, Edith Dinger, Esther Ort, Thelma Kirk, Elizabeth Peed, Ruth Hall, Bessie Wells, Katherine Smith, Smille Bryant, Pauline Pollitt, Ada Duzan, Carrie Goodwin, Lena Hornback, Annie Calvert and Miss Goodwin, and Mrs. Fannie Gelsel, Mrs. Dr. Howard, Mrs. Sam Huggart, Mrs. W. T. White and Mrs. J. C. Burwell.

Dainty refreshments were served, followed by an Easter egg hunt and distribution of prizes. A baby picture contest also proved a source of great enjoyment.

KEEPS ELECTION PLEDGE.

Mr. R. M. Harrison, Councilman from the Sixth ward, who, when he was encamping for the office and he would give his salary to the City Mission, if elected, kept his pledge by turning the entire amount of his first salary over to the treasurer of the City Mission. The people of the Fifth ward are glad that they had the wisdom to elect a man of such sterling integrity. Many a man after he is elected forgets all about pledges made while a candidate for the office.

MR. C. L. WOOD MADE A COLONEL.

Governor A. O. Stanley has just appointed Mr. C. L. Wood, cashier of the Farmers & Traders Bank of this city, as aide de camp on his staff with rank of Colonel. Mr. Wood is one of the leading Democrats in this part of the state and is a personal friend of the Governor.

"I see young women going down the streets in garb not only ridiculous but shameful, suggestive and humiliating to the modesty of honorable men; garbs that make insult the low scoundrels who are willing to defile anything that is sacred."

"To say that I am ashamed of such fashions of dress is speaking my mind very mildly."

FREEZE HURTS TOBACCO PLANTS.

The heavy freeze of early Monday morning has caused much loss to the farmers' tobacco beds, and many of them are ruined completely. These were where the plants were up, or just starting in the soil, as the ground was frozen more than an inch deep. Some of the tobacco growers will not sow beds until this week and many of those who had supposedly early plants will have to re-sow. As a result of this loss some of the growers contend that the setting of tobacco will be late and that the crop will, in the main, be one of the latest in years. The fruit crop does not seem to have been injured.

HERLEY'S INSTALL NEW SODA FOUNTAIN.

To meet the demands of their steadily growing trade, M. G. Herley & Son, the Market street confectioners, have just installed a handsome new soda water and soft drink fountain of pure white marble and the latest of all necessary fixtures. Messrs. Herley now have a nice trade and feel that the public deserves the best that they can put out.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT MAKES BIG PURCHASE OF SUGAR.

Agents for the government of Great Britain purchased 25,000 tons of sugar in New York Wednesday at the big price of 73¢ a pound, the sugar to be delivered some time in May. Those who are in a position to know say that the sale will cause a startling advance in the price of sugar in the near future. Just how much it will can not be conjectured.

TO RAISE TURKISH TOBACCO.

G. E. Dudukjian, an Armenian, has purchased ten acres of land from L. C. Bierro on Apple Tree, Lewis county, and will prepare this season in the raising of cigarette Turkish tobacco.

If he is successful he will make his tobacco into cigarettes and market them. This tobacco in Turkey sells as high as $5 per pound.

RICHARD HARDING DAVIS DEAD.

Mount Kisco, N. Y., April 13.—Richard Harding Davis, author and war correspondent, died at his home here late Tuesday night from heart trouble. His body was found early Wednesday morning and had apparently been stricken while at his telephone.

BIG TIME AT FLEMINGSBURG.

The degree team of Wyandotte Tribe of Indians of this city, which installed a new lodge at Flemingsburg and initiated a large class of candidates Wednesday night, reports a good time enjoyed by all who attended.

The funeral of Miss Bette Hampton, aged 65 years, who died Monday at her home on Short street, was held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from her late home, with services by Rev. J. E. Reed. Burial in the Maysville cemetery.

Henry G. Kaline, who is employed with the lock and dam as blacksmith at Maysville, has been here a few days, the guest of his family, and has returned home.—Ashland Independent.

Dr. J. H. Cooper of Cincinnati, is spending a few days here with his wife.

Mr. W. W. Ball has returned from a business visit to Cincinnati.

A QUICK CHANGE ARTIST.

It takes a mighty lively man to reverse himself more quickly than does President Wilson. On January 18, 1916, Secretary Lansing thus stated the President's views on armament of merchant ships:

"My government is impressed with the reasonableness of the argument that a merchant vessel carrying an armament of any sort should be held to be an auxiliary cruiser and so treated by a neutral as well as by a belligerent."

"Armament of any sort" was the expression used. Certainly a neutral would not wish its citizens to travel on a vessel "held to be an auxiliary cruiser." Therefore, resolutions were introduced in both the House and Senate warning American citizens not to travel on such vessels. This was in harmony with the Lansing statement of the President's views. But immediately came the President's change of mind and his demand that the resolutions be defeated. He has either changed his enfeebled and deliberately expressed opinion of what constitutes an auxiliary cruiser or he insists upon the right of American citizens to travel on auxiliary cruisers of a warring nation and still claim the protection of the American flag. Democratic newspaper that find pleasure in defending or explaining away the President's various changes of mind, will confer a favor upon their readers if they can give any excuse for this.

STILL "SAVING" MISSOURI.

The Democratic national convention was sent to St. Louis because Champ Clark told the committee it was necessary to do so if Missouri was to be "saved" to the Democratic party.

About a month ago ex-Governor David R. Francis was appointed ambassador to Russia because it was felt necessary to give Missouri some added and special favor of federal patronage if the state was to be "saved" for Democracy.

Now the Missourians are demanding that Governor Major be nominated for Vice President in order to "save" the state.

It surely does take a heap of "salvation" for Missouri Democrats these days. But the fact remains that Missouri can't be "saved." The Democracy down there is beyond salvation. As in 1904 and 1908, Missouri will this year give her electoral vote to a Republican President—and in addition she will elect a Republican state administration and a Republican United States Senator, together with such other pickings, Congressmen and the like, as go with an overwhelming political victory.

Some of the political dopes now have it that McLeaven and Gore were really tools of the President in the recent threay in Congress. Thus the process of extracting rays of sunshine from embassies goes on.

Secretary Daniels has thrown a whole newspaper bouquet at himself. Mr. Daniels, it appears, is quite enthusiastic over himself. Philadelphia Inquirer.

COLORED LODGE

Of Odd Fellows Throughout the State
Will Meet Here July 11,
12, 13 and 14.

District Grand Lodge No. 19 of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows in Kentucky, will meet in this city July 11, 12, 13 and 14.

At the annual session of this body held at Paris last July the Maysville Star Lodge and Household of Ruth, through their representatives, Hon. E. W. Lane, Prof. W. H. Humphrey and Miss Sadie Bell, asked that the session of 1916 be held at Maysville. This request was supported by strong letters of invitation from our County Judge, Hon. W. H. Rice, and our City Mayor, Hon. J. Wesley Lee, which made a strong impression on the delegates assembled, and Maysville was successful over Paducah and Evartown.

The two lodges met and named a committee of eighteen to make all necessary arrangements for the entertainment of the Grand Lodge in this city.

That committee is composed of the following persons, who stand among our best colored citizens for frugality, progress, and race enterprise:

Maysville Star: L. H. Tipton, H. J. Fields, E. W. Chambers, John Yates, W. H. Humphrey, Robert Sykes, Benjamin Chambers and Isaac Brady.

Household of Ruth: Ida Jackson, Anna Bell, Alice Lane, Pearl Johnson, Sadie Bell, Bertie Hays, Anna P. Perkins and R. Thomas.

The above committee unanimously elected Mrs. H. L. Anderson as secretary.

This committee is now planning for this gathering of high-class set of men and women who will make up the delegates from the nearly 200 lodges in this state and their hundreds of friends who always attend these gatherings.

The Patriarchy exhibition and competitive drills will be camp here by this branch of the Odd Fellows' order.

In itself is worth seeing. Plumes and feathers, dashing and striking uniforms, presenting a splendid type of the "brave knight of old." This will come to our people like a breath from a new world. All of Maysville and surrounding country will have this rich opportunity at their own door to see one of the greatest spectacular and uniform display ever witnessed in northern Kentucky by colored drill companies.

These delegates and uniformed companies, eighteen in number, pay their own way while in the city and that means a goodly sum to be spent among other business enterprises in the city.

They will have to be provided for and that means an outlay of money by our people in order to make money, hence we will all share in benefits and profits gained by this gathering.

This will also mean an outlay of money by the two lodges here for advertising, for printing and mailing, for a band of music and such expenses, as always goes with an undertaking of this nature.

Every member of the two lodges has been taxed to help defray some of the expense.

As our colored people here have not advantages so much enjoyed by the same people in other parts of the state in the way of factory employment that employs them the year around and other pursuits in life that enables them to contribute to this undertaking as they would so much like and at the same time these Odd Fellows of Maysville have been struggling to meet their obligations in the payment on their new hall on Sutton street, they are looking forward to this gathering in July of delegates and crowds that follow up these sessions, as being a means to that end.

They need your encouragement in this indeed laudable undertaking and they are calling upon every friend and well-wisher, ever merchant, banker, farmer and laborer, to help them by asking a liberal contribution to their solicitors when they call upon you.

These dollars come back to you, the butcher, the grocer, the dry goods man, the merchant, banker, painter, paperhanger, druggist, in fact all reap something from all good and big intelligent and business gatherings brought to Maysville and this will be the first time the Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge has ever met in northern Kentucky.

Let us show them we can take care of them in a becoming way and treat them as nicely as they do in central and southern Kentucky, for this is a body of representative thinkers, business and professional men and women who are leaders of their people in the state who colored people are proud of. Now, let each and all lend a helping hand as long as they bring the clean and big something here that leaves the impression on the minds of our people for good and the community made better by their coming within our gateways.

The local committee on Grand Lodge has authorized Messrs. E. W. Chambers, Henry J. Fields and W. H. Humphrey to solicit funds to help entertain the above mentioned session of Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows in July.

—Contributed.

SHERMAN AND WILSON LEAD IN ILLINOIS.

Chicago, April 12.—At the presidential preference primary in Illinois yesterday Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman, Republican, and President Wilson had all their own way, as all other names had to be written in.

John Maynard Harlan, candidate for un instructed Republican delegate at large, but who in his speeches has declared for Colonel Roosevelt, appeared at midnight to have failed by 75,000 votes to break the Sherman slate.

Roger T. Sullivan retained control of the Democratic political machinery in the state and wrested control of the Cook county (Chicago) committee from the faction headed by former Mayor Carter Harrison.

Former Governor Charles S. Deneen apparently retained his strength down state, but Mayor William Hale Thompson captured sixteen and became fourteen of the city's thirty-five wards. Five wards returned neutrals to the Republican county committee.

One thousand and twelve precincts of 2,168 in Chicago gave Wilson 42,396 votes, while forty-three voters wrote in the name of Champ Clark.

Sherman in the same precincts received 32,670 votes. Roosevelt's name was written in by 4,960 persons, Hughes by 301, Root by sixty-three, and Mayor Thompson's by two.

SUFFRAGISTS CAN NOT SEE ANY GOOD REASON TO HIDE FEMALE LEGS.

Chicago, April 12.—Some one with a sense of humor and a thirst for excitement suggested to Congressional Union Suffrage leaders now in conference here that the present day short skirts are immoral.

"Immoral! The idea!" exploded Miss Ruth Astor Noyes, who figured prominently in the pageant on the capital steps at Washington. "Why immoral? Just because they show one's legs? Everybody knows we have legs. It's absurd."

"It's rubbish," said Miss Elsie Hill of New York.

"Tommyrot," was the view of Mrs. Florence Bayard Hilles, chairman of the Delaware branch.

Not an opponent of the short skirt was found.

GERMAN ATTACKS AT DEAD MAN'S HILL DESPERATE IN VIOLENCE.

London, April 12.—The amazing battle left of the Meuse river continues unabated. The French resistance is still unbroken, and the Germans' attempts upon Dead Man's Hill and Hill No. 304 are now almost desperate in their violence.

The infantry fighting also has spread to the opposite bank of the river, and French and Germans are locked in a titanic struggle between Douaumont and Vaux. Late yesterday afternoon the Germans at great cost succeeded in gaining a footing in some of the French advance trenches.

They were immediately ejected, however, by a counter attack, leaving more than 100 prisoners in the hands of the French.

It is in the Mort Homme region however, that the greatest struggle of the Verdun campaign is in progress.

Toward the end of the day the infantry for the moment gave way to the artillery, and a terrible bombardment of the French positions is now in progress, apparently in preparation for another attack.

With the exception of one small section of approximately 500 yards, the French line from the Meuse to Avocourt remains unbroken, despite the utmost efforts of four German divisions (80,000 men). The Germans made this advance by the aid of a tremendous artillery fire and hundreds of jets of flaming liquid, which burned and suffocated the defenders.

The Germans behind cover of the blazing streams of chemicals, advanced from the southern fringe of Courtois Woods. They were able to win a foothold in some trenches on the extreme eastern section of the Mort Homme (dead man) position.

The Germans again called their chemicals into play in the Douaumont fighting, a tornado of shells being directed against the French. Here their gain was only momentary.

The Germans are now throwing their best forces into the fight regardless of the cost.

By now they have brought up something like thirty-three divisions (660,000 men).

A single instance shows what the German losses before Verdun must be.

The third battalion of the Brandenburg Chasseurs, numbering 1,200 men up to date has lost 1,076. The total includes twenty officers.

The Sixtieth and Nineteenth regiments lost 60 per cent of their strength before Vaux. The Thirtieth Company of the latter regiment was literally annihilated and the Eleventh division in its attack on Avocourt Wood lost half its strength.

BODIES IN THE RIVER WILL BE RECOVERED DURING SUMMER.

Huntington, April 12.—The waters of the Ohio river here are expected to give up the bodies of five dead with the coming of summer, the dead being members of the crew and officers of the ill fated towboat Sam Brown, recently blown up by a boiler explosion on the Ohio shore, opposite First street, Huntington.

Old rivermen in this vicinity are of the opinion that the bodies are pinned under heavy debris, somewhere in the hull of the wrecked boat, this contention being based on the fact that, if the dead were resting on the river bottom, the warm weather of last week would have brought them to the surface.

The rivermen predict that it will be June before the five dead bodies will be recovered.

The coming of summer will see efforts to remove the heavy mass of wreckage from the river. It is pointed out that should the wrecked hull slip out into the stream, it would endanger river traffic, and it is expected owners of the company will make an endeavor during the summer when the river falls, to remove the debris and twisted mass of steel and iron.

Small pieces of the wreckage have floated away recently, but the main section of the boat is held securely in the mud, and there is no immediate danger of it rising and floating down stream.

Nearly two billion dollars are deposited in the savings banks of New York state.

BUSINESS IS BASED ON CONFIDENCE

A Theory Put Into Practice by Well Known Business Man

J. C. BRADY

A druggist has many opportunities to make lasting friends of his customers," said Mr. J. C. Brady, popular Rexall Pharmacist of Fall River, Mass. "The very nature of his business draws their confidence for little helpful suggestions on the matter of health. Many people have thanked me for recommending Rexall Ointments as the best relief for constipation and its resultant ills. Put up in salinity tablet form, they are pleasant to the taste and make an ideal laxative for the home—for men, women and children alike."

ANOTHER MODERN BUILDING

Is That of J. C. Everett & Co's on East Second Street-- Grain Elevators are Modern and Complete in Every Particular--Large Volume of Business Handled

It was with great pleasure that a representative of The Ledger had the opportunity of inspecting the handsome new building which was recently erected by J. C. Everett & Company on East Second street. Modern in every sense of the word and equipped throughout with the necessary material for the proper handling of grain, and with a railroad switch running to the rear of the building, this firm is now receiving and shipping an average of a carload a day where they formerly handled the same amount in a week.

J. C. Everett & Company's New Building on East Second Street.

The time was when it was no unusual sight to notice wagon after wagon standing on East Second street waiting to be unloaded at the old location. Times have changed, however, with a new building and new facilities, and the grain is now unloaded in one-fourth the time that it took then.

Instead of waiting on the streets, the wagons now drive right into the warehouse, where there is an abundance of floor space. The grain is quickly unloaded on the first floor, dumped into hopper-shaped box and goes to the basement, from whence it travels through a trough to the other end of the building and is then raised to the scale or distributing bin which is in the top of the building. The grain is then weighed while still in the bin from scales on the first floor. All grain must pass through this bin before it can be again handled or stored.

After the grain has been weighed it is then allowed to run into one of the eight storage bins, which are two stories deep and hold about 14,000 bushels each. From these bins it can be removed when needed. Two of the storage bins have large pipe attachments which lead to the cleaner. This saves the work of having a large amount of the grain transferred to the scale or distributing bin after having been put in the storage bins.

OHIO RIVER APPROPRIATIONS
PASS THE LOWER HOUSE
CARRYING $5,500,000.

Washington, April 12.—Kentucky's share of the rivers and harbors improvements contemplated in the annual appropriation bill now under consideration in the House remained as reported by the committee.

There was no serious objection to any of the Kentucky projects, although Representative Frear of Wisconsin, a Republican member of the Rivers and Harbors Committee, who challenged most of the items in the bill, objected to them. In every case he was overruled on a vote.

The Ohio river appropriations were passed, the Kentucky section of the Tennessee river project was adopted and the appropriation for the Cumberland river, providing $235,000 for locks and dams at Cadiz and $269,000 for similar work at Eddyville, was retained by the House.

Appropriations of $5,500,500 for the Ohio river were adopted. The bill gives $500,000 for continuing improvements and for maintenance by open-channel work and $5,000,000 for continuation of the canalization project by construction of locks and dams to a nine-foot stage.

PIKE COUNTY TO VOTE ON HALF-MILLION BOND ISSUE.

Pikeville, Ky., April 12.—In compliance with the demand of the people of this county that they know who the commissioners are to be to handle the funds arising from a bond issue to be voted on at a special election to be held on May 6, the Fiscal Court has appointed eight commissioners, one for each magisterial district in the county. The board appointed is equally divided as to political affiliation. The first bond issue for the building of good roads in Pike county will be for the amount of $500,000.

The annual mineral output of British Columbia aggregates about $30,000,000.

DOPE.

The Milwaukee American Association team opened a two days series at Portsmouth Tuesday with a 9 to 2 victory over Scottilly Doyle's school team. It was the first day favorable for baseball there this spring and the Brewers got their first good work out in several days.

(Frankfort State Journal) A telegram was received last night from "Ducky" Holmes by President C. W. Hay of the Frankfort baseball team, in which the manager announced that he had secured three promising young players at Evansville and they are expected to report in here tonight ready to begin the practice session at Glenwood Park tomorrow afternoon.

Manager Holmes will return tonight or tomorrow morning, from Terre Haute, where he went after leaving Evansville, and it is believed he will bring with him at least three and possibly four players from that city. The men who will report from Portsmouth also are expected in tonight or tomorrow morning and the training session will start as per schedule tomorrow afternoon.

Potter and Bacon were at the park yesterday trying out their arms, and though they made no attempt to "unlrossen," they shot several hot ones over, indicating that they are both in good condition and will be ready to get into the game with a few days' practice.

A prospective deal for Hanna, the Lexington pitcher, in exchange for Mueller and Kuykendall, caused much comment among fans yesterday, although the deal has not been arranged and may be declared off. Hanna is a corking good man and many local enthusiasts think he would be a valuable acquisition to the Frankfort staff of hurlers. The loss of Mueller will not be felt, as much as Holmes and the big six-footer who is to be secured from Terre Haute, will be able to take care of the receiving end.

REDS LOSE OPENER.

Cincinnati, O., April 13.—Toney's wildness, coupled with ragged fielding by the Cincinnati club at critical times and some exceptionally timely hitting by the Cubs, enabled Chicago to win the opener here yesterday by a score of 7 to 1, before a crowd that filled every available seat at Redland Field and overflowed into the outfield. The hitting of Flack, F. Williams and Zimmerman all counted in the run getting for the visitors, while London carried off the batting honors for Herzog's team.
